Items of Interest Gathered Around Las Vegas and Vicinity.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

In olden times, when women bought
A modest pair of hose,
The clerk took down a box and asked:
"You want a pair like those?"
But now he takes a downward glance
Right at the wheel girl fair—
"And do you want another set
Like those you're wearing there?"
—Denver Times.

Martin Delgado has a very sick boy.

Johnny Booth is having one of his backs repainted.

Serafino Lujan has opened a store and saloon at Rociada.

Small pox is said to be raging in and around Anton Chico.

The sewer for the new B. & M. building was completed yesterday.

Guy Gatchel is much improved; his fever having practically left him.

N. T. Cordova, who is laid up with a sprained ankle, is slowly improving.

The brick cottage of W. D. Condon, on Fourth street, is ready for the plasterers.

Miss Lula Pace, who has had a five weeks' of typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Not two people in five, even among the well-informed, pronounce correctly either the noun or adjective form of the name of some of our new possessions in the Pacific—the Hawaiian Islands. Hawaii is pronounced Ha-wi-e, and Hawaiian should be called Ha-wi-yan.

A. J. Papen, whose parents reside in this city, and who was the editor for several years of the Rio Grande Republican, published at Las Cruces, has severed his connection therewith, and has taken the management of the Sacramento Chief, published at Alamo, Santa Ana County.

E. St. John and wife have again left the city, this time professedly for Denver; but it is believed by many that they will never come back. St. John has made a reputation here of being the smoothest dead-beat and all-around scoundrel who ever visited the city. He will not tell the truth under any circumstances.

Irvin C. Watson, twenty-four years of age, who came here about eighteen months ago from Boston, Mass., in search of health, died at 2 o'clock, yesterday afternoon at his rooms in the Duval building, on the west side, where he had been for the past seven months. He took to his bed some three months ago. J. Biehl, the undertaker, has taken charge of the remains, awaiting instructions as to the burial of the body.

THE DEADLY SMALLPOX.

Every man, woman and child who has not been successfully vaccinated, in the past seven years, for self-protection and the protection of their neighbor and the community at large, should attend to this all important matter at once. Smallpox so far has affected only the children. It has been fatal in a large percentage of the cases, but has so far mostly been confined to the small towns and country homes, in nearly all sections of the Territory. However, as winter is approaching, at which time of year smallpox thrives and is the most fatal, not confining itself alone to children but to persons of all ages, too much attention cannot be given nor the law too rigidly enforced, by the county and city authorities in enforcing vaccination and quarantining, that thus this dreaded and contagious disease may be wiped out.

MENTION OF LAS VEGAS.

The following personals are taken from the Elizabethtown Miner:

G. A. Rothgeb left Friday morning for his home in Las Vegas. One of Mr. Rothgeb's accomplished daughters was recently married there and Mr. Rothgeb expects to spend a few weeks visiting his family before returning.

Charlie Springer is up from Raton this week, accompanied by two of his nieces, daughters of Frank Springer, of Las Vegas. The young ladies are enjoying a vacation from school. They have been for some time in Boston and return soon.

NEW REDUCTION PLANT AT BLAND

It is now an assurance that H. M. and H. F. McFarlane, who own the majority of stock in the Bland mill and with Chester Greenwood own the valuable Lone Star group of five mines, have fully determined to move a 30-stamp mill owned by them, but now laying idle north of Laramie, Wyoming, into the Cochiti district to be used in treating the ore of the Lone Star, says the Bland Herald. This mill will be apart from the plant owned by the Bland Milling company, which will probably be used as a custom mill, as the company at present owns no mining property of their own, and the new mill will be used to treat exclusively the ore of the Lone Star. The object is to put the McFarlane mill near the mine, on the Denver Girl, which is one of the group, in order to save the expense attached to hauling the ore to the Bland mill. The ore to the new mill will be delivered by a gravitation system of tramways. W. L. Trimble & Co., are negotiating and will no doubt have charge of hauling the machinery from Thornton.—New Mexican.

On next Thursday evening, the Elks will give a social session in honor of A. J. Stockbridge, the returned Rough Rider, who is a member of that order. Mr. Stockbridge found in the surgeon to whose care he was committed when he succumbed to fever, on the battle-field, a brother-Elk, and to the additional care which this secured, he attributes his life.
